

Programm

28. Februar Round table Researching AI Errors: Conflict, experiences and imaginations of the future
Prof. Veronica Barassi, Dr. Philip Di Salvo, Dr. Antje Scharenberg, Rahi Patra und Mari Poux-Berthe, Universität St. Gallen; Chair: Big Data Lives Team; Raum: F-123
07. März Vanishing points and the violent expansion of the migrant quasi-carceral continuum
Dr. Deidre Conlon, University of Leeds; Chair: Carolin Fischer
14. März From ideas to substance: Philosophical practice as a tool for transformation
Lydia Ginzburg, M.A. The Hebrew University of Jerusalem; Chair: Michaela Schäuble
21. März Taking care of the dead: The case of Tajik migrants in Russia
Dr. Juliette Cleuziou, University Lumières-Lyon 2; Chair: Moslem Ghomashlouyan
28. März How vulnerabilities became commodities? A political economy of ethical hacking (1990-2020)
Prof. David Bozzini, Universität Fribourg; Chair: Heinzpeter Znoj
04. April Mittelbaugespräch (geschlossene Veranstaltung)
11. April Frühlingsferien
18. April Queer objects and intimate citizenship in Kenya
Prof. George-Paul Meiu, Universität Basel; Chair: Tobias Haller
25. April Juridification of Swiss climate politics through climate activism and civil disobedience
Dr. Jevgeniy Bluwstein und Lucie Benoit, Ambizione Projekt, Universität Bern; Chair: Julia Eckert
02. Mai Local institutions and coping strategies in the phase of transformations of governance of common-pool resources in Senegal
Dr. Désirée Gmür und Selina Felber, Sinergia Projekt, Universität Bern; Chair: Tobias Haller
09. Mai Nollywood: Africa's popular cinema
Prof. Onookome Okome, University of Alberta; Chair: Sandra Mooser
16. Mai Voice and the law: Petitions and perlocutions in Indian terrorism
Dr. Mayur Suresh, SOAS University of London; Chair: Julia Eckert
23. Mai Sommerfest (kein Kolloquium)